729

Pittsbi

Price SIX-PENCE.]

A Subscription for a Medal
WASHINGTO

MEDALS, from the earliest have been regarded, by ev people, as the greatest help to hist method of transmitting to posterity the heroes and patriots of the age, most honorary compliments a grate confer on their favourites. As the kind furnishes no instance of a hero has better deserved, or has been mo to the affections or esteem of a grate his excellency the President of the general George Washington, an art offer to the citizens of America, a m ing and approved likeness, and such allegorical figures as shall best suit so ter; and he humbly hopes to be hon patronage.

To Subscribers: a medal will be d white metal, to resemble silver, for a fine gold coloured metal, for two silver for four dollars; and of gold to weight.

Subscribers will please to particu they choose. As the medals are no will be ready to deliver in a few days comes to hand, it is hoped every gen at the time of subscribing.

†§† Subscriptions will be receive by John Scull: or any gentleman number of medals sent to any part of by sending his order and remittance f J. Manly, to the care of Robert Pa master, Philadelphia.

Copy. We, the undersigned, ha dal of general Washington, and thini expressive likeness, and worthy the citizens of the United States of Ame

Thomas Mifflin, go
state of Penns
Richard Peters, sp
house of assem
Christian Febiger,
the state.
Francis Johnston, c late American

Philadelphia, February 22, 1790.

WHEREAS a certain Iacob Kerns h against the subscriber for an ac has long since paid, and whereas the proven his account before Peter Sh Baltimore, this is to forwarn all pers an assignment on said proven accoun testimony can be produced of its bein

NICHOLAS HOCHSTA

Fayette county, April 12, 1790.

IF Edward Barton or Bartor, will s Clark, of Washington, or to the he will hear of something to his adva

April 4, 1790.